Informacje:

What is it about?

It is a training course for trainers, teachers and youth workers who are open to new methods of working with youth, especially youngsters with fewer opportunities and tough background. The methods covered in the training are survival methods on the basic level. The participants will experience theoretic knowledge as well as practice.

WARNING!

A special characteristic of this training is that it deals with the survival methods. We plan to expose the participants to real experience not just theory. Due to this, please prepare yourself to some physical exhaustion, especially during the night survival workshop.

Participant's profile:

*Please be reminded, this is a training course for adult trainers and youth workers. Number of participants from each country: 4

Participants' characteristics:

- Experience in working with youth, preferably as a trainer, teacher, etc.
- Minimum age: 20, no maximum age limit
- English language skills on at least communicative level

Please fill in the participant's form and send it to: dorota@camposfera.pl before 7th August.
